Event to Benefit Stock the Classroom Initiative

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—More outdoor fun in the summer sun is on its way back to Tallahassee as the second annual Oasis Fun Fest takes place Saturday, July 27, 2019 at Tom Brown Park from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. This family-friendly event is filled with live music, food, games, crafts, and activities for all ages. General admission is free. Tickets for unlimited rides and games on giant inflatables are $10 per person.

“We are excited to build upon the success of our inaugural year,” says Pastor Rhonda Lloyd, festival director. “We organized this event to promote unity, harmony, and fellowship among the people in our community and look forward to creating another unforgettable, fun, and interactive experience for all to enjoy.”

This year, Brett Wellman & The Stone Cold Blues Band, Kenya, and Positive Vibes Redeemed will thrill audiences as the festival’s music headliners.

The Oasis Fun Fest is hosted by Oasis Christian Center, a local church committed to helping break down barriers to early childhood school success. Festival attendees will have the opportunity to support the church’s Stock the Classroom Initiative with donations of school supplies at the event or through financial contributions given online when ordering tickets at www.oasisfunfest.com/tickets.

Sponsorship packages are available beginning at $2,500. Food truck ($125), cottage food ($100) and market ($75-$100) vendor spaces are also available. Both, sponsorship and vendor reservations can be submitted online at www.oasisfunfest.com.
